

Online mall

Introduction

This system is an online shopping store platform created with reference to popular e-commerce platforms such as PChome and Amazon. It focuses on enhancing the user experience by streamlining the payment process and providing a user-friendly interface and operation. We categorize users into two types: "consumers" who browse and place orders for products, and "merchants" who list and manage products.

Architecture

Front Page

Shopping Car

Merchandise Management

Merchandise Search

User Management

Achievements

